Preferred by Admissions Officers

In a survey of university admissions officers, 74% said they preferred to include MyBest scores on TOEFL score reports.* An increasing number of universities are officially accepting MyBest scores, so be sure to check the policies of the schools you are considering.

Available for the TOEFL iBT® and TOEFL Essentials® Tests

Universities will receive your MyBest scores for whichever test you take.

Accurate and Fair

Of course, you can always count on your TOEFL scores to be:

- Accurate measures of your English skills
- 100% fair and unbiased because tests are always scored from a centralized scoring network, not the test center

All TOEFL iBT and TOEFL Essentials score reports automatically include MyBest scores right alongside scores from a single test date.

Here's a sample from a TOEFL iBT score report.
